

Challah Order Form

Please join us for our Challah Fund Raiser for She'arim this fall. We need a minimum of 10 families to sign-up, please send in your order as soon as possible.

Your Challah order will be available for pick-up @ the church, Thursday evenings, 6pm, the weeks of She'arim. If you are not there for pick up, designate someone else to pick-up or your challah will be donated to the synagogue or sharing community (depending on the week).

Your home, your values, your challah.

The tradition of 2 challot at every Shabbat meal goes back to the double portion of manna that the Israelites, while wandering the desert, were commanded to take in preparation for Shabbat. This is to remind us that we work hard all week so we can avoid work on Shabbat. As Reconstructionists, we can decide what the right number of challot is for our shabbatot at home with our family - but I encourage you to make the number meaningful as a reminder of an important value. For example: ordering 2 - one for Friday night dinner and one for French Toast on Sunday! Thus the sweetness of shabbat lasts 2 days instead of 1. For that matter, get 7 and eat a loaf a day (or pass them around to your neighbors or town homeless shelters).

Challah = bread for shabbat (singular), Challot = bread for shabbat (plural)
